

Mildred, Milton and Thomas Kreif Scholarship

The Mildred, Milton and Thomas Kreif Scholarship was created to recognize and assist summer staff members at Boy Scouts of America, Camp Gardner Dam, in their pursuit of post high school education. This scholarship will give summer staff members that exemplify motivational qualities and that provide a superb experience for camp scouts, the opportunity to work at the camp, while being able to earn and save money for their future educational endeavors.

Tom Kreif, a former Appleton Area School District educator and former Camp Director, has 40+ years of service at Gardner Dam Scout Camp, located on the Wolf River in White Lake, WI. His parents, Mildred and Milton, retired from West Bend Company, West Bend, WI, volunteered and worked at the camp for over a quarter century. Together, they have given 160 years of support to the Scouting movement.
