

Donald A. Jeffries, M.D. Memorial Scholarship

Dr. Donald Allan Jeffries was born in St. Clair, MO, and attended high school in Green Bay, WI. He served in the Navy during WWII and the Army in the Korean conflict. He received his Bachelor of Science (1945) and Doctor of Medicine Degrees from the University of Wisconsin—Madison (1947). In 1948, Dr. Jeffries became affiliated with the Cantwell-Peterson Clinic, later known as Shawano Clinic and now ThedaCare. He practiced medicine in Shawano for 45 years before retiring in 1993. Dr. Jeffries served the community as chairman of the Police and Fire Commission, the president of the Shawano Club, a Director of the Shawano Community Hospital, and as a Civil Air Patrol Member and held a private pilots license. He particularly enjoyed teaching, and served as a preceptor for the University of Wisconsin-Madison training fourth-year medical students. He held leadership positions in the Boy Scouts of America and taught local courses for EMT personnel. Dr. Jeffries and his wife had five children, most of them still reside in the Shawano area. Their son, Richard, also a University of Wisconsin Medical School graduate, practiced medicine with his father until succumbing to leukemia at age 29.
