"Machado reveals just how original, subversive, proud and joyful it can be to write from deep in the gut, even — especially — if the gut has been bruised." —LA Times

Join us in person on National Coming Out Day during Hispanic Heritage Month and Domestic Violence Awareness Month at Lawrence University Warch Campus Center Cinema.

Carmen will join us via live video and discuss her book In the Dream House, a memoir about queer, interracial intimate partner violence, followed by an interview conducted by Kathy Flores, director of D&R Appleton, about Carmen's experience writing about intimate partner violence and healing as a queer survivor. After the interview, the audience can participate in a Q&A session with Carmen.
