

Clintonville Area Foundation Joan A. Paulson Scholarship

Background:

Joan A. Paulson is a native of Iowa, WI and graduated from Iowa High School. She received her bachelor's degree from UW Stevens Point, and her master's degree in English from UW Madison. She taught English for 40 years, much of it in Clintonville High School. She was co-originator of Honors Reading Colloquium in Clintonville High School. She was a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, an honorary organization for women teachers for 60 years. She was also active in WI Council of Teachers of English, National Council of Teachers of English and Clintonville Education Association. She belonged to Clintonville and Iowa historical organizations and was also active in library and church activities. Joan was an avid reader and diligent genealogist. She has written several short books on her family and was co-editor of Rural Schools of Waupaca County. The Wisconsin Historical Society has archived her papers and research on WWII Prisoners of War in WI. Joan's interests and research took her on many travels in the United States, Canada and the world.
