

Wisconsin Garden Club Federation Irene Straus Scholarship

Background:

Irene Straus dedicated her life to making Madison, WI a beautiful place. She was a founding member of the Garden Center Club which began in 1962 with the primary purpose of establishing a garden center. In 1978 her dream became a reality when the Olbrich Garden Center was built. In 1983, Irene received the highest honor paid by the Wisconsin Garden Club Federation when she received the Lydia Shafer Award and received an engraved silver bowl at the organization's state convention.

Irene was involved in garden club work for over 30 years. She was a Landscape Design Critic for the Wisconsin Garden Club Federation and was a member of the State Judges Council for over 20 years. Irene also donated her time as a librarian at Olbrich's Horticultural Library and prepared books for public use at Olbrich Gardens as well as donated many personal volumes to the library.
